The diagram illustrates pathways to membership in the Phoenix Congregation, including taking a class, making a covenant, or joining a group. Key concepts such as diversity, love, justice, and service are highlighted along the journey. The path includes steps like pledging, time, small group ministry, interview, and action.